Kia ora friends and whanau

Welcome to Week 9.

PB4L Learning

Here are some of the programmes that we have going on to help our kids learn our school values:

- Constable Sue has been visiting our Year 5-8 classes and the feedback from our pupils has been positive. They are learning all about their responsibility with regard to laws and consequences.
- Next week we have our PB4L advisor visiting to assess our Tier 1 systems at school. We have surveyed the staff and the results show that we are operating a 94% Tier 1 programme. This is an excellent result!
- TEAM values can run at home too. If you would like to know more, please ask us.

Art Splash

The Choir, Art Exhibition and Wearable Art performance on Tuesday night were a great success. We looked sharp in our school shirts and performed well. The Wearable Art was fantastic and looked amazing on stage. Well done team and special thanks to Mrs Bolton who rehearsed the Choir in her lunchtimes and was art teacher for the exhibition pieces on display in the Michael Fowler Centre foyer. Also thanks to Miss Smith who worked with the designers and models during art sessions. I really enjoyed the show! All the best to our Dancers tonight who will perform at the Michael Fowler Centre at 5 p.m. More about them next week!

"Kiwi As" Open Day

We are all set to share our learning with you next Wednesday 26 September. Organise your Kiwiana costume now! There will be a Kiwi As dress up competition, a Kiwi As games rotation and classes will be open for families to visit and share our learning, as well as workshops run by the students. If fine, we will have a BYO kiwiana picnic together for lunch. A full menu of the day's festivities will be coming home on Friday. Join us on the day for a great celebration of our learning.

Powhiri for our new Principal

The welcome for our new Principal Brent McDowell will be held next week on Thursday 27 September at 2:00 p.m. in the school hall. We are looking forward to this special occasion. Parents are most welcome to attend and meet Brent at afternoon tea in the staffroom after the event.

Sunhats for Term 4

It is compulsory for all children to wear a wide brimmed sunhat when outside during Terms 4 and 1. Please ensure your child has one when we come back to school on 15 October.

School Holidays

We finish school on Friday 28 September at the usual time of 3 p.m. and Term 4 starts on Monday 15 October.

I would like to share with you a poem by Joseph Lee in Te Paua. His class was doing an inquiry into Tutor England:

Pudding Lane

Black and white
as the pictures show
black and white
as the houses show
yellow windows
dark alleyways dead bodies
as well as a noose

Rock castles towers are common
but people?
not so much

Maybe I am dreaming or am I?
maybe this is unreal
or is it?

by Joseph Lee

A great week full of arts learning and lots of visitors at school.
